Token of Time

Ensiferum

Harvest the field of time with the old man's scythe
The narrow path of the chosen one reaches beyond life

I set sails for the ageless winds
No fear of dying or a thought of surrender
I threaten every barrier on my way
I am bound forever with Token of Time

Among the humble people Everything is torn apart but I'm blessed with faith and bravely I shall go on

Are thou the bringer of hope and joy that I've waited for years
I shall fight to restore the moon
Wisdoms of time are carved on the sacred wood

Do thou possess spiritual powers that would dispel all my fears
I shall not die until the seal is broken
Token of Time is trusted in the hands of the chosen one
