

Juggernauts

Enter Shikari

And I know that we still got time
But I do not think we're invincible
And I think that there is a sign
Yeah I do not think we're invincible
Crushing all in it's path (4x)

Now don't get me wrong
I love what you done with the place
I just wish i had a chance to help build it
Instead of just moving into home of disrepair
And expected to work, prosper and then share
Constantly relying consuming to feel content
But only because we lost touch with this home that we spend
Trillions of dollars training for our wants
And not our needs
And now we're growing tired of planting bleary eyed seeds

Now I'm not saying that we could do better
But we given the chance we try
We've dig up the Earth find one soil
Fill the trench with greedy eyes

And I know that we still got time
But I do not think we're invincible
And I think that there is a sign
Deep breathes, clenched fists
Here comes another juggernauts

Here comes another Juggernaut!

Crushing all in it's path (2x)
(What the hell will happen now?)
