

The Bearer of Bad News

Enter Shikari

You provoke tears that stain you control my face
you arrange it to show
a broken expression

I hate to be the bearer of bad news
As the cracks appear to run
But we'll meet again on better terms

You provoke tears that stain

a broken expression

But we'll meet again on better terms

I hope to god we, get out alive
