

Death Faceless Chaos

Enthroned

Near the voice of NASTUR in his almightyness hear the whispering
g afflicting
the crapulent stormrace in the middle of the unspeaking eye. In the black night maze !! near the yell his breadth through his serpent-fangs...Tearing the holy silence apart. For the holy silence apart. For the cursed faceless
one is processing the funeral sound of our almighty. Blackend H ordes our hate our wills are his power released for the glory of our redeemer.

Who has know all the evil before us,
The tyrannical secrets of time?
Though my match not the dead man that bore us...
Though the heathen outface and outlive us...
And our lives and our laughing are twain
Forgive us our virtues, forgive us our lady of pain.
DEATH FACELESS CHAOS

My delite of disgust my disgust of delight lead me to the irremediable thought that all the one live the darkness.

In the middle of all lives the one who is all darkness..
And darkness will be eternal since everyting bows before the lord !
Under the Nellish frozen chants of our demons.
The faceless one is processing through god's own decadence !
Screaming to death, the laws of ouyr infernal chaos !
Die with company in eternal hell of the most tormented souls !!

Who has know all the evil before us,
The tyrannical secrets of time?
Though my match not the dead man that bore us...-acap
