Chief Rebel Angel

Entombed

Down here on the ground since it all began Expiriment in moral and behavior In spite of all imperfection I'm a fan of man The worm is my rose too

Many my name
But one and the same
Chaos, being
And the everlasting flame

Phosphoros
Lucifer
Stand up!
In praise of the morning star
Phosphoros
Lucifer
Say it!
Chief Rebel Angel
Phosphoros
Lucifer
Stand up!
In praise of the morning star

Don't get too cocky, keep yourself small Don't ever let them see you coming Look at me, underestimated from day one You never see me coming, I'm a surprise

Solid my game
We're one and the same
The chaos, the being
And the everlasting flame

Watching, waiting
Holding my breath
But I'm no pupppeteer
The stage is set, you pull your own strings now
Like butterfly wings
Once they're touched they never leave the ground
No,
I don't make things happen here

Phosphoros Lucifer Say my name
