

Father set me free at this altar of death dead fingers cold as ice touches my flesh as it passed through my soul and body the fear I thought was gone grows tears of regret and confusion this is not what I wanted to know

I have embraced the truth beyond lies where honesty reigns I thought I gave my life but back I was only given pain

I once stood at the threshold of my desire losing ground now I'm this horrid truth's denier

The nocturnal hour is passed here nothing can last I sought and screamed in pain but there was nothing to gain Nihilism arise from the bottom of no lies from here to eternity I just can be set free

SATAN, help me die away from reality my arms and legs are bound please grant me mortality

I'm losing it crawling upon these white walls of truth for the darkest void I've wasted my entire youth I'm crawling down the dirt that I licked off my mind the truth you'll never (want to find) (Orvar S?fstr?m version on
