I For An Eye

Entombed

God is waiting, always hating
Endlessly
Loss of life means nothing now
That everything is free
Never in your wildest dreams could you anticipate this loss impotent redeemer hanging helpless on the cross

I for an eye, tooth for a truth Pain in kind Try to see things straight The hate has made you blind

Inbred soul cries out in anguish Nightmare ended, life surrended Spent a lifetime shooting up But still they drag you down

Deliberate infliction
From a whiter shade of brown

I for an eye, tooth for a truth Spinal staircase Comprehension sets in violent embrace

I for an eye, tooth for a truth
Pain in kind
Manic,
Always searching what you'll never find
(You're blind)
