

Thou Shalt Kill

Entombed

Thou shalt kill
You got blood to spill
The first to aim
The last to laugh
I will take your world
And break it in half
I will make an example
Out of you

You are the symbol of hate
I am the powers that be
Running will just fan the flames
Destruction in heaven's name

Thou shalt kill
You got blood to spill
Destroy at will and kill
You got lives to end
For the thrill
And you will

Kill everything that you love
Destroy everything
That you need
Together you kill everything
There's hate
In the love song you sing

True believers and kind souls
Get it every time
Always first to taste the whip
And to polish it

First to aim
Be the last to laugh
I will take your world
And break it in half
I'm sending out a message
Shaped like you
You are the symbol of hate
I am the powers that be
Running will just fan the flames
Destroy in heaven's name
Worship me and fulfil
Fuck free will
Thou shalt kill
