

The Slithering Below

Entrails

Down in the ground, buried alive

Lying six feet below

The coffin's shut tight, my eyes search for light

Anxiety starts to grow

[Chorus:]

Buried alive

Torture and pain

Buried below

Screaming in vain

Buried in dirt

With snakes that slither

Buried and dead

Below

I feel something crawling, an unseen slithering

As the air's becoming thin

Suffering through torture while my life's withering

They're now eating me from within

I can't remember how they got me in here

Buried deep underground

Bitten and trapped, I'm now beyond fear

I will never be found

[Chorus:]

Buried alive

Torture and pain

Buried below

Screaming in vain

Buried in dirt

With snakes that slither

Buried and dead

Below I wither

Below I'm dead
