

Triumph of the Sinners

Entrails

Sinners shall burn

To a melting stuff

Great kingdom shall rise

Cause of sinners doom

Memories from that time

Slowly rot away

No one misses their friend

Cause sinners shall burn in hell

Make some noise

Scream and exterminate

Violence to hell

The sinners are born again

Ruin the world

Fight the life

Of remaining crowd

Your doom is near

For nothing the pain ends

Be drunk to kill again

So be to the great pain

And rise from the grave again

The enemy will get away

And stand gone forever

No threat to the people

The peace finally arrives

Fighting death to death

To create some life

Life who shall win

Against the dark hell

Flowing power makes

Me to win at last

Death shall be reborn

Triumph of the sinners
