

Hearts Of Frozen Stone

Entwine

Is ading in love?
Without a trace
Lost in a pouring rain
Lay all your hope
For another day
Why do we need to rely on
The hearts of frozen stone
Grinning and dying for your hope
But we're fading out of love
Yeah, we're fading out of love
Done is the morning rain
The red sky of dawn
Will ease the growing pain
Lay all your hope
For another day
kertosäe:
Why do we need to rely on
The hearts of frozen stone
Grinning and dying for your hope
But we're fading out of love
(2x)
The morning rain will seize the pain
Wash away that tainted love
Morning rain will ease the pain
A precious life has just begun
Morning rain will seize the pain
Morning rain will ease the pain, yeah
kertosäe
Fading out of love
Fading out of love...
