

Strife

Entwine

Well, I need time for myself
Before I'm what I despise
And I won't pretend, that everything is right
I just want to be sure, what I want
What I live for in this life
I'll be free, at the time...

Before the end of dawn
I don't need you, for trouble in my life
Cause I need you, strong and bright
I don't need you, for trouble in my life
Cause I need you, to drown in me for awhile
For as long as I try to define
What I live for in this life
I declare off the right
To know where I belong
I don't need you, for trouble in my life
Cause I need you, strong and bright
I don't need you, for trouble in my life
Cause I need you, to drown in me for awhile
