You've lost that feelin' in your kiss I'm only holdin' up the show
My God, your face I'm gonna miss
But I see it's time to let you go

You don't dig lovin' me no more We used to make it long and slow I've cried so long my eyes are sore I see it's time to let you go

It ain't no good if it don't feel good Real good
It still felt good to me
If you feel you should
It's understood
Go where you should be

Take everything that smells like you Leave no reminders left to show That at one time that we were two And now it's time to let you go

It ain't no good if it don't feel good Real good
It still felt good to me
If you feel you should
It's understood
Go where you should be

Take everything that smells like you Leave no reminders left to show That at one time that we were two But now it's time to let you go That at one time that we were two But now it's time to let you go That at one time that we were two But now it's time to let you go But now it's time to let you go
