

Goodbye

Eowyn

You told me once I told you twice
I never wanted it like this
We're past the point of no return
And I am tired of this
We can't pretend that nothings happened but we must move on pick up the pieces
Forgive where we went wrong

Goodbye to this empty place inside
No more silence
Goodbye to the pain we have disguised
Goodbye to the lies

You said you'd die and so did I
And wounds are open bleeding still
Our hearts left broken till it mends
We must respond to this
Our chance to rise above defences now we must move on
pick up the pieces
Forgive where we went wrong

Goodbye to this empty place inside
No more silence
Goodbye to the pain we have disguised
Goodbye to the lies 2x
