

Helpless

Eowyn

You know my pain what I've been through (who are you)
You see the way things come unglued
Don't You Turn away from this place, I am waiting.

Do you see me lying here without you I'm helpless.
There are things I can't undue without you I'm helpless.

This world will fade and I will too.
The past will pass for what I choose. (I choose you)
For my strength, for my pain I am waiting.

Nothing left to say and nothing left to do
