

Locked Away

Eowyn

Look past all I've been before
I'm longing, pleading for so much more.
Do you see me on this cliff afraid?
Waiting, praying, come and take away the pain?

Chorus:

Locked away in these chains I need to find myself.
Trust today I will fade if I don't find myself.
Without you I've morphed into a lesser me.
Don't you see, all I need is You to find myself!

Set back clocks of wounded times.
I'm grasping, begging for one more try.
Do you see the possibilities?
Take me, break me, mold this new found me.

Locked away?
Come and free me?
Locked away?
Come and free me.
Come and free me!
