

Without You

Eowyn

Drowned in fears that I've made my own.
Countless years passing by so fast.
Without you I can't survive.
Without you my worlds collide.

Stopped by the lies, I was lost in my life, lost in my life
Without you I died I was never alive never alive, without You.

Drawn in by the life I longed to live.
Losing what I needed most again.
Without you I can't survive.

Why'd I fight you?
I cried out for truth.
Why'd I fight you?
