

You Had To

Eowyn

Pride fooled me once but know this
It won't encompass me again
It took awhile to notice
This troubled state that I was in
But you knew
You always did
You had that special gift
You believed me intrigued me
Why you stayed I never knew

You saved me from myself
You had to, you had to
You turned my life right back again
You had to

A thousand words can't thank you
But thank you nonetheless believe
No one can love me better
It took awhile for me to see
Like strangers
I pushed you far away, you kept on waiting
Perceiving my leaving why'd you save me once again

You saved me from myself
You had to, you had to
You turned my life right back again
You had to

You always make me start to wonder
Can I stay here any longer
Until you make me stronger

You saved me from myself
You had to, you had to
You turned my life back again

You turned my life back again
You saved me from myself
You saved me
