

Do you think the speed is good
Are we moving like we should?
We are sailing without breeze
Anything to keep the peace
What to do, what to pray,
What to fear, what to say....
What to think, what to break,
What to hope for, what to take....
When it seems so far away
Do you think the speed is good
Are we moving like we should?
We are drifting without stream
Anything to keep the dream
What to do, what to pray,
What to fear, what to say....
What to think, what to break,
What to hope for, what to take....
What to do, what to pray,
What to fear, what to say....
What to think, what to break,
What to hope for, what to take....
When it seems so far away
Do you think we'll ever be back there
Where we used to love and care?
Drowning slowly without water
Anything can turn us over
