

Reverence - Living in the Heart

Epica

An overactive mind where a thousand thoughts come floating by
Will not be able to slow down at times
Don't be afraid, live in the now, enjoy simplicity
Avoid incentives that will make you blind

Don't let it burn you down
Live in the heart
Experience the now

To really know yourself, ignore your mind and find yourself again
Life is always challenging
To really find yourself, you can't be blind to signals you obtain and gain
Thoughts are slowly changing here

Here in the now if you identify with your own heart
Will change your views and make you feel at home
You're not your thoughts, observe how they can be duplicity
Don't follow those that make you drift away

Don't let them pull you down
Live in the heart
Experience the now

To really know yourself, ignore your mind and find yourself again
Life is always challenging
To really find yourself, you can't be blind to signals you obtain and gain
Thoughts are slowly changing here

Reward yourself

To really know yourself, ignore your mind and find yourself again
Life is always challenging
To really find yourself, you can't be blind to signals you obtain and gain
Thoughts are slowly changing
To really know yourself, ignore your mind and find yourself
Life is always challenging
To really know yourself, you can't be blind to signs you gain
Thoughts are always ranging now
