

Forgotten Symphony

Epysode

In the eyes of the enemy
There's only a river of cries
Nothing can change for what I've done
Can you hear this forgotten symphony

So it burns you with this rage forever
In the silence, yes in the silence...
You will witness my words forever
In the silence, now and evermore...

It haunted me, released me
It's my burden, my sacrifice
Chained to its melodies

In the room of the enemy
There's our blood quietly sailing
Nothing could change what I've done
(Now) I can hear this forgotten symphony

So it burns you with this rage forever
In the silence, yes in the silence...
You will witness my words forever
In the silence, now and evermore...

Every heartbeat let me think there's hope
Even if I'm destined to be forgotten
I have a reason to save my soul
As I lay dying... I understand, I'm not alone

It haunted me, released me
It's my burden, my sacrifice
It haunted me, my sacrifice
It haunted me, my sacrifice
