

Weakened by the lies of men
Following this endless road of pain
I'm the chosen prophet
Predicting the birth of new demons
I'll dive under dark seas, I'd curse for taking me away
And the rain becoming my fury, I will wash the pledge away
Let me be the fire
To burn the evil from inside
Under this bleeding cross
Let me be the venom
Among the shadows of the world
This is my prophecy
Disappointed by the carefreeness
Following the footsteps of the elders
I'm elected by god
Predicting the end of the dark times
I'll dive under dark seas, I'd curse for taking me away
And the rain becoming my fury, I will wash the pledge away

Silent are my wounds
My fears become my pride

This bleeding cross
Let me be the venom
My fears become my pride
I'm the venom
