

The Monolith Of Demons II

Equirhodont

I saw thousands of Things.
I lived thousands of Lives.
I died thousands of Deaths.
I made three Steps.

With the Mystical Diamond of Magic
I stabbed my Heart
Covered with the ashes of my Ancestors.
I made three Steps.

I have learned the passion of Death
And understood the heat of Life
And created the New Universe.
I made the last three Steps.

Now I am standing in front of Him.
I am standing in front of my Master.
Now I know the nature of Things.
I became a Magus.

In the Monolith of Demons.
I am the Grandiose Magus !

And so it came about this way. What will happen now? Who will seize the Force? All of it I know yet. But I must give Things full play.
I will not intervene, everything happens as it should happen, along the endless Spiral of Time, I just open my Eye of Demon from time to time and I am watching.
