

Julie Tearjerky

Eraserheads

Julie Tearjerky on the phone
She said that I can't be alone
Yeah she was told that time was gold

Super strategy guide
Super strategy guide
Don't turn your back on an enemy
She doesn't look too friendly
It's a final fantasy

Nothing stays the same
Nothing stays the same

No comic books, no ugly looks
No flaming trees
Oh man, I need some more

I hear her calling my name
I hear her calling my name
Julie Tearjerky on the ground
She'll swallow anything that's round
Pick it up next time around
Nothing stays the same
Nothing stays the same

No comic books, no ugly looks
No flaming trees
Oh man, I need some more

Need some more

No happiness, no loveliness
No emptiness
I wasn't here before
Here before
I hear her calling my name
I hear her calling my name

No comic books, no ugly looks
No flaming trees
Oh man, I need some more

No happiness, no loveliness
No emptiness
I wasn't here before
I hear her calling my name
I hear her calling my name
