

Shake Yer Head

Eraserheads

I was born, upside down
I felt my grandma put my feet
On the ground
They put a spoon, in my mouth
And everyone was shocked to Hear me shout
Well I knew I couldn't take all
The dog food that they make
I'd just as soon as put myself
On a stake and burn

I saw it comin' around
I saw it comin' around, yeah
I saw it comin' around
So I just, yeah
Shook my head and walked
Away.

I grew up, in a town
Where everybody tried to push
Me around
The girls were alright, but
The guys were tough
They're always buggin' me with
Macho stuff
Well, I ain't no stupid
Fighter, I go for flower
Power
I've been running every race
Just to save my face, yeh

I saw it comin' around
I saw it comin' around, yeah
I saw it comin' around
So I just, yeah
Shook my head and walked
Away.

Well, they try to see if you
Care

It's just a matter of not
Begging for more
You know it's really suicidal
To just give in
With people you can never Really be sure?
O-hoh when it gets down to this

They'll eat you up
When the words get in your head
They'll get you up
It's a saving grace to have Enough
When you find yourself in a
Compromising spot
You should know, you shouldn't

Take
All that dog food that they Make
You'd just as soon as put Yourself on a stake and burn

You'll see it comin' around,
You'll see it coming, comin'
Around,
When you see it coming around,
You just, yeah
Shake yer head and walk away
Yeah! (walk away) alright!
Shake, shake, shake, shake
Yer head; Yes, the one you think with..ho
ohh c'mon, c'mon
