Freedom will come To real love Heaven will come For real love

Do-Wah, Do-Wah Run away when it hurts, from the things that we do Do-Wah, Do-Wah Don't know why we cry, run away from the truth

Children of new men Colours of human kind, in shadow Good is your loving Growing and sharing storms

Believe You`ve got to believe

Calling the day freedom will come And we will arise to real love Day by day, heaven will come And we'll survive for real love

Cherish the union, the light in a stranger`s eyes Your guardian angel will make all the wrong things right

Believe You`ve got to believe

Do-Wah, Do-Wah, Do-Wah Do-Wah, Do-Wah, Do-Wah

Calling the day freedom will come And we will arise to real love Day by day, heaven will come And we'll survive for real love

Calling the day freedom will come And touch the sky in heaven above Day by day, heaven will come And we'll survive for real love

Calling the day freedom will come And touch the sky in heaven above Day by day, heaven will come And we'll survive for real love

Calling the day freedom will come And touch the sky in heaven above Day by day, heaven will come And we'll survive for real love
