

True Love Wars

Erasure

See those eyes like stars will fall from the sky
Soaring through the icy wastelands of space

Tears on the window
Feeling the wind blow
Rushing right through you
Knows all that you do

All is fair in true love wars
All is fair in true love wars

(I guess I'm into feeling higher lately)
(Higher than I've ever been)
(This thing called love)

Like an angel of the wilderness descends
The rain comes down to wash the morning so fair

Cries of hysteria
Fire coming near you
Cheers to the madness
Sorrow and sadness

All is fair in true love wars
All is fair in true love wars

Give me time to think it over
Give me room and space to breathe in
Let me while away the hours
To be sure to work it out

(I guess I'm into feeling higher lately)
(I guess I'm into feeling higher lately)
(I guess I'm into feeling higher lately)
(Higher than I've ever been)
(This thing called love)

Cries of hysteria
Fire coming near you
Here's to the madness
Sorrow and sadness

Tears in the window
Feeling the wind blow
Rushing right through you
Knows all that you do

All is fair in true love wars
Knowing all is fair in true love wars
All is fair in true love wars
Knowing all is fair in true love wars

(I guess I'm into feeling higher lately)
