All I wanna do is you and that body
Like I use to
Girl I know this song is way over due
I can't have you out here thinking I'm over you
Every reason why I fell in love with you
Girl it's still the same when you started to change
We changed together
Girl I love when you switch your hair up
When you make cat eyes with your
Makeup
Eyebrows [?] when you wake up
We changed together
Girl them heels make your ass sit way up

Oh girl, did you think I didn't notice?
Girl I notice
Girl I notice
Did you think I didn't notice?
Or did you think I forgot?
It's apart of my job
I been paying close attention to you
I been paying, I been paying close attention to you
Girl I notice
Girl I notice
If I say it or not
It's apart of my job to notice

Girl I know we both get caught up in our own lives
Thinking we'll always have tomorrow to get back right
But I don't wanna get comfortable, I don't wanna get comfortable
So I just wanna let you know
Girl I just wanna let you know that I notice

Girl I notice
Girl I notice
Did you think I didn't notice?
Did you notice me noticing you?
Or did you think I forgot?
It's apart of my job
I been paying close attention to you
I been paying, I been paying close attention to you
Girl I notice
Girl I notice
If I say it or not
It's apart of my job to notice

The way that you wake up at 3 in the morning
When I come home late and say that I'm horny
With no hesitation you quick to hope on it
Then after we finish you make me top ramen, yeah
This kind of love it'll never get boring
Yeah they try to holla but you stay ignoring

Did you think I didn't notice?
Girl I notice
Girl I notice
Did you think I didn't notice?

Or did you think I forgot?
It's apart of my job
I been paying close attention to you
I been paying, I been paying close attention to you
Girl I notice
Girl I notice
If I say it or not
It's apart of my job to notice
