

Road Trip

Eric Bellinger

What if we came up missin?
What if we left and told nobody at all
Wonder if they will miss us
Wonder if they would even care where we are
If it was up to me,
Girl I'll be down to leave
We'd be gone for the rest of our lives
Lord knows that you would be
The perfect scenery
So tell me if you're ready to ride
Just me and my baby
Top down, you and me, we're just rollin
Without having a clue where we going
On a road trip destined for love
Just me and my baby
Speedin like we in slow motion
Close your eyes and look good darling
On a road trip destined for love
[X2]
Let's go, Shawty
Let's go, baby
On a road trip destined for love
Let's roll, mami
Let's go???
Girl I know what you're thinkin
You got some bills and you need that 9 to 5
But I'll give you a new position
Promise that I'll be all you need to survive
If it was up to me,
Girl I'll be down to leave
We'd be gone for the rest of our lives
Lord knows that you would be
The perfect scenery
So tell me if you're ready to ride
Just me and my baby
Top down, you and me, we're just rollin
Without having a clue where we going
On a road trip destined for love
Just me and my baby
Speedin like we in slow motion
Close your eyes and look good darling
On a road trip destined for love
[X2]
Let's go, Shawty
Let's go, baby
On a road trip destined for love
Let's roll, mami
Let's go???
We'll have the music turned up
We won't remember where we been
Screamin we ain't got no worries
With yo hair blowin in the wind
Just forget about your girls
I'll forget about my friends
Girl we won't need none of them
I swear all I need is me is???
Me and my baby

Top down, you and me, we're just rollin
Without having a clue where we going
On a road trip destined for love
Just me and my baby
Speedin like we in slow motion
Close your eyes and look good darling
On a road trip destined for love
[X2]
Let's go, Shawty
Let's go, baby
On a road trip destined for love
Let's roll, mami
Let's go???
