

The Pillow

Eric Bellinger

You 'bout to have a conversation with that pillow
Aaw, you can't take it can you
I know you're probably wondering how long I will go
Aaaw, you can't take it can you
How 'bout you arch your back, whisper as I slide inside
You just don't know how to act, with my stroke will be so surprised
So when you come through
You can put your face in the pillow
A nigga 'bout to hit it right

While you talk to the pillow
Talk to the pillow [x5]
A nigga 'bout to hit it right
While you talk to the pillow
Talk to the pillow [x5]
A nigga 'bout to hit it right

You just got in town and I know that you want it
Cause you been sending me emojis all day, (no lol, no lol)
Girl I ain't mad at that
Whatever position you want you gon' get cause tonight we gon' do it your way
And I know you good with that
It's been a long day though
So when you pull up just pull 'em to to the side
And make sure you grab that pillow tight
Turn up the radio
Cause it's gonna get loud in here when you scream my name

While you talk to the pillow
Talk to the pillow [x5]
A nigga 'bout to hit it right
While you talk to the pillow
Talk to the pillow [x5]
A nigga 'bout to hit it right
