

Volunteer

Eric Bellinger

All alone in the crib, in the dark, looking up
At the ceiling, and you thinking, you need someone to love
Independent, single mother, saying you don't need no other
But I know, I know, you need someone to love
Living life behind of bars for something that's not your fault
They don't, but I know, you need someone to love
Try me with all these signs and work cause you done right
I bet you need, you need someone to love

You need someone to love, you need someone to love
You need someone to love, you need someone to love
You need someone to love, you need someone to love
You need someone to take off all your clothes for you and throw
'em on the ground
Girl if you need a volunteer, I'll raise my hand right now

Got all the money in the world, nobody to share it with You need someone to love
But ain't nobody else out there with you
No one to read them frowns on the bitches, girl you need someone to love
You got family outta town and you miss 'em
The ones that held you down through your decisions
Yeah you need someone to love
Cause you mad at the world when you wake up and you keep tryna cover it up with makeup

But you need someone to love, you need someone to love
You need someone to love, you need someone to love
You need someone to love, you need someone to love
You need someone to take off all your clothes for you and throw
'em on the ground
Girl if you need a volunteer, I'll raise my hand right now

I'm tired of seeing all them tears on your face
You deserve to be splurged on all day
You deserve to be smiling always
Girl so I ain't talking 'bout them
Lame ass niggas in your phone you be dealing with
You and me, we both know them niggas ain't shit
Gon' and get your refund, ain't worth your time
You and even seen me coming, they say love is blind

You need someone to love, you need someone to love
You need someone to love, you need someone to love
You need someone to love, you need someone to love
You need someone to take off all your clothes for you and throw
'em on the ground

Girl if you need a volunteer, I'll raise my hand right now
