

Who Am I Supposed To Be

Who Am I Supposed To Be

Tell me mama who I am
What I'm doing, am I the man I think I am
Is this it or is there more
Heads I run, tails and I'm dead like a dinosaur

I want, I want to see what can possibly crawl out from under a rock
And then I'll know it for real I'm not afraid of the dark
And just maybe I will find myself along the way who am I supposed to be today?

Watch my thunder look no hands
I'm on fire riding on the seat of my own pants
Now you see me now you don't Zero to hero, hey you never know

I want, I want to see what can possibly crawl out from
under a rock
And then I'll know it for real I'm not afraid of the dark
And just maybe I will find myself along the way
who am I supposed to be today?

What will I do when I find out that I've been missing?

Where will I be when the sun comes back around?
Will it be any better than what I've got right now?
