

Less Than Whole

Eric Paslay

The grey clouds have departed
The stars light up the night
Now I can see through darkness
The river shines with life

I've waded through the water
My soul is comin' clean
I've held my breath forever
But now it's time to breathe

There's nothing like forgiveness
To resurrect a soul
Better to give than get it
I've been forgiven so I'm lettin' you know oh
Nobody should be less than whole

So many broken people
Their hearts forget to beat
Grown numb, no one's forgiven
Go on forgive yourself
Go on forgive yourself

'Cause there's nothing like forgiveness
To resurrect a soul
Better to give than get it
I've been forgiven so I'm lettin' you know oh
Nobody should be less than whole

Oh yeah, ooh yeah

There's nothing like forgiveness
Oh, to resurrect a soul
Better to give it yeah, than it is to get it
Oh, I've been forgiven so I should know
I've been forgiven so I should know
I've been forgiven so I should know
Nobody should be less than whole

There's nothing like forgiveness
To resurrect a soul
Better to give it, yeah, then it is to get it
Give it, I've been forgiven so I'm lettin' you know
Nobody, nobody should be less than whole (Oh yeah)
