

There's No Holding You Down

Erin McCarley

Face whatever you fear
Don't scare the birds away
I come over and get you
Off your dotted line
That careful dotted line

We can write the story
You don't have to worry
There's no holding you down
There's no holding you down

Open up the champagne
Now you're swinging from the chandler
There's no holding you down
There's no holding you down
Here oh, oh

Face whatever you hate
And then throw it in the fire
Know, know that there's
No such thing as bad

Press, let optimism
Find you, need you
In that crowded mind
That dangerous mind

We can write the story
You don't have to worry
There's no holding you down
There's no holding you down

Open up the champagne
Now you're swinging from the chandler
There's no holding you down
There's no holding you down
Here
Down here

We can write the story
You don't have to worry
There's no holding you down
No one holding you down

Open up the champagne
Now you're swinging from the chandler
There's no holding you down
There's no holding you down
Ou ou
Ho, ho

No one holding you down
There's no holding you down here
