

You're Not That Someone

Erin McCarley

1, 2, 3

The world let you do anything you wanna do
If you're someone, if you're someone
You think I'll do anything you want me to
You think you're someone, you're not that someone

Where talking from bally pulp
Look at me like I'm your coat
But dressed up like a bad man had Climbing people like a latter

Hands below do all the rowing
Up on deck, you get to crowing
Stealing from other chicks
And calling it "good politics"

The world let you do anything you wanna do
If you're someone, if you're someone
You think I'll do anything you want me to
You think you're someone, you're not that someone

Oh, who made you the holy sheriff
Show me someone you take care of Power, power is your drug
Blood stain on your bed and rug

Out the door, you press the button
Don't know why you pressed the button
Cocaine smilers always lying
Hides, the crowd is crying

The world let you do anything you wanna do
If you're someone, if you're someone
You think I'll do anything you want me to
You think you're someone, you're not that someone

Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh

Table's round for a reason
Every player has a season
Something soon is gonna give
And you'll be begging us to live

The world let you do anything you wanna do
If you're someone, if you're someone
You think I'll do anything you want me to
You think you're someone, you're not that someone

The world let you do anything you wanna do
If you're someone, if you're someone

You think I'll do anything you want me to
You think you're someone, you're not that someone

You think you're someone, you're not that someone
You think you're someone, you're not that someone
