

Honeymoon With The Blues

Ernest Tubb

Wedding bells rang out today but not for me
They rang for somebody else in my old used to be Had to catch a train I couldn't stand the news I'm on a honeymo on with the blues
I thought her invitation was an answer to my note Saying I was sorry for the unkind words I spoke
But it's just a oneway ticket that I can't refuse to a honeymo n with the blues
So roll on eightwheel driver take me far far away
A thousand miles or more would be just fine
The blues and I are celebratin' our wedding day
And we have no special or particular place in mind
I know that we're not headed for Niagara Falls
But any destination would just lead me to four walls
Well I spend weary nights wearing out my shoes on my honeymoon with the blues
Never thought I'd take this trip without a girl of my dreams
Shoes and drives're what I've had in mind
So Mister Engineer won't you turn on the steam leaving all my d reams away behind
Say porter I'd like to order drinks for two I know that I'm alone but then that's nothing new While I'm celebratin' here's a drink for you on my honeymoon wi th the blues
I'm on a honeymoon with the blues