

Jealous Loving Heart

Ernest Tubb

Don't ever kiss no one but me
If you do, dear, you'll break my heart
It's not because I doubt you
But I'm such a fool about you
I've got a jealous loving heart

Cause where there's love there's jealousy
Good and bad just won't tear apart
They always go together
Like fair and stormy weather
I've got a jealous loving heart

You're all I want you're all I love
Please don't tear my soul apart
Just say you love me too, dear
And be careful what you do dear
I've got a jealous loving heart
Don't ever kiss no one but me...
