Jealous Loving Heart

Ernest Tubb

Don't ever kiss no one but me
If you do, dear, you'll break my heart
It's not because I doubt you
But I'm such a fool about you
I've got a jealous loving heart

Cause where there's love there's jealousy Good and bad just won't tear apart They always go together Like fair and stormy weather I've got a jealous loving heart

You're all I want you're all I love Please don't tear my soul apart Just say you love me too, dear And be careful what you do dear I've got a jealous loving heart Don't ever kiss no one but me...
