

Journey's End

Ernest Tubb

Each night brings back
My dreams of you
I cry and cry
I feel so blue
You broke my heart
So why I pretend
The sign ahead reads
Journey's end

River's rolling along
Skies are turning gray
Clouds are moving in
I've lost my way
I tried to smile
But why I pretend
The sign ahead reads
Journey's end

Sitting all alone
Beneath the stars
I'm wondering
Where on earth you are Thinking of the things
That might have been
But the sign ahead reads
Journey's end
River's rolling along...
