

Though The Days Were Only Seven

Ernest Tubb

Angels sing sweet songs of love dear gates of heaven stood ajar

All the seven days you love me God was looking from a bar

And he knows my heart was honest that it wanted only you

But you went away and left me now I'm lonely and I'm blue

Though the days were only seven that your heart beat with my own

They were seven days of heaven sweet as heaven ever known

There were many things my darling that I wanted you to know

But my soul was so excited I forgot to tell you so

Please believe me for I loved you and I miss you dear sweetheart

Won't you come back now I need you tell me that we'll never part

Though the days were only seven...
