

Let It Go

Escape the Fate

I'm on the verge of a breakdown
I'm on the brink of an epic meltdown
I'm on the way to a flat line
Oh oh yea

No oh oh
I don't really want to leave you behind
But apparently you can't stay all mine
So I'll try to let you go
You're not mine to own

If I let it go
If I let this go
If I let you go
Would the scars continue to show
(2x)

I'm on the verge of a crackdown
I'm freaking out, got a bottle of jack down
I'm on my way to a blackout
Oh oh yea

No oh oh
I don't really want to leave you behind
But apparently you can't stay all mine
So I'll try to let you go
You're not mine to own

If I let it go
If I let this go
If I let you go
Would the scars continue to show
(2x)

(Shred that shit Bryan!)

I'm on the verge of a breakdown
I'm on the brink of an epic meltdown

No oh oh
I don't really want to leave you behind
But apparently you can't stay all mine
So I'll try to let you go
You're not mine to own

If I let it go
If I let this go
If I let you go
Would the scars continue to show
(3x)

I'm on the verge of a breakdown
