

Teargas Baby

Escape With Romeo

You dance like a demon
in my head
I followed your trails and now I can never come back Our love it could be so mean you are the wheel that rolls me to the guillotine

bye bye teargas baby
I can't cry no more

I'll never knew what our relation could be it's ending up
in brutality
locked up in sleep
locked up in lonely days where my dreams explode like a thousand grenades

Bye bye teargas baby
I can't cry no more
bye bye teargas baby
I can't cry no more
no more tear gas
no more tear gas
no more tear gas
no more tear gas
no more tear gas

"You walk in the room
spread your hate like a poison I hate you with your teargas as it comes over me and makes me cry so I say bye bye teargas" bye bye teargas

I can't cry no more

The riots of my lust baby you cannot beat them down although your touch is hot now it's gonna make me frown I'll speed to a life that's better another culture anywhere you're standing on the battlefield it was me that left you there

Bye bye teargas baby
I can't cry no more
bye bye teargas baby
I can't cry no more
no more tear gas
no more tear gas
no more tear gas
no more tear gas
no more tear gas
no more tear gas
