

Running Out Of Needs

Eskimo Joe

I am asking you to be,
The last one that I love forever,
First one that is never ending,
Circle that has no beginning,

Round and round, till nothing takes its place,
A snake that's bating of its face,

Despite its head,
Despite its tail,
Its just a funny kinda world,
You're just a funny kinda girl,

I am asking something pleading,
Something wanting, never needing,
Do your needs outweigh my needs?
Which one grows the most amount?

I don't want the things I used to want,
But I want everything you don't,
You run away at such a speed,
I run away and let it bleed,

I think I'm running out of Needs,
I think I'm running out of Needs,

Hang this hat on me,
And tell me what you see?
The man you used to know,
Or the stranger on the road,

Everything's OK,
But I dream of yesterday,
Running down on needs,
But you're running out on me eee eeee,

I am asking you to be,
The last one that I love forever,
First one that is never ending,
Circle that has no beginning,

Round and round, till nothing takes its place,
A snake that's bating of its face,

Despite its head,
Despite its tail,
Its just a funny world,

I am asking something pleading,
Something wanting, never needing,
Do your needs outweigh my needs?
Which one grows the most amount?

I don't want the things I used to want,
But I want everything you don't,
You run away at such a speed,
I think I'm running out of Needs,
