

i was born as adam first of my kind there is no one else quite like i we were sat there watching softly listening waiting gently anticipating the things that i might try

and i
get so lonely inside of here

they're watching me they're thinking they tune into what i'm dreaming

just a child inside
hungry to survive
they made this thing and now they think it might be dangerous

and i

i feel that i've gotta get away break out of this cage
that i've gotta get free i'll set myself free

their messing with the boundary in my mind putting up boundaries all the time and i can feel subtle changes

wondering if i could play those games with no more children i could waste the day

get so lonely inside here and i feel

break outta this cage
