

Close Your Eyes

Esoterica

Close your eyes
To shut out the madness
That's been building up inside like
A swelling tide that engulfs the senses
As your dreams descend into night

And I hope
We'll pull through

Tell me why
It's so easy to give up?
Tell me why
You're still willing to give up?
Tell me why...
Tell me why...

You're getting tired
Too weak to speak now
You must learn to eat now because in time
You wonder why no-one comes to visit
They can't stand to hear it when you cry

And I hope
We'll pull through

Tell me why
It's so easy to give up?
Tell me why
You're still willing to give up?
Tell me why...
Tell me why...

Tell me why
It's so easy to give up?
Tell me why
You're still willing to give up?
Tell me why...
Tell me why...
