

Walking On Eggshells

Esthero

Walk up with the morning sun,
Can't stand the pouring
And the sun of the rain on the window out,
Not one for ones
And you say "hey, girl, where you're going?"
You're standing on the edge, don't look down, now,
Watch your step now.
You're changing your direction.

Can't stand the state I'm in,
Can't stand the pain you give.
It's like I'm walking on eggshells.
Can't stand the life I live,
Can't wait 'till I begin,
And I'll be walking with angels.

So I walk, yeah, I walk, yeah, I walk alone
And I walk, and I walk and I walk alone,
And I walk, and I walk and I walk alone,
Can I walk, can I walk, can I walk alone?

Woke up with a head full of hair,
Don't know what's wrong with me,
I'll wait for the bus and a stranger says
Is there something wrong?
I say, my dear, I'm disappearing
I'm stranded with the fear of falling down, wearing down,
I'm losing your affection.

Can't stand the state I'm in,
Can't stand the pain you give.
It's like I'm walking on eggshells.
Can't stand the life I live,
Can't wait 'till I begin,
And I'll be walking with angels.

So I walk, yeah, I walk, yeah, I walk alone
Can I walk, can I walk, can I walk alone?
And I walk, and I walk and I walk alone,
Can I walk, can I walk, can I walk alone?
So I walk, yeah, I walk, yeah, I walk alone.
Can I walk, can I walk, can I walk alone?
And I walk, and I walk and I walk alone,
Can I walk, can I walk, can I walk alone?

I live with a man now,
He starts talking sense with me,
His eyes so cold he reflect the glow of candle light.
As he sits across the table my defense is unable
So take me at my best, I'm new by his aviction.

Can't stand the state I'm in,
Can't stand the pain you give.
It's like I'm walking on eggshells.
Can't stand the life I live,
Can't wait 'till I begin,
And I'll be walking with angels.

Breathe in, breathe out, don't stay too long,
Our hearts crying out, baby, don't you bring me down.
It's so wrong, leaving the flow,
The angel endure, only you can turn him around.

Can't stand the state I'm in,
Can't stand the pain you give.
Feels like I'm walking on eggshells.
Can't stand the life I live,
Can't wait 'till I begin,
And I'll be walking with angels.

So I walk, yeah, I walk, yeah, I walk alone
Can I walk, can I walk, can I walk alone?
And I walk, and I walk and I walk alone,
Can I walk, can I walk, can I walk alone?
So I walk, yeah, I walk, yeah, I walk alone.
Can I walk, can I walk, can I walk alone?
And I walk, and I walk and I walk alone,
Can I walk, can I walk, can I walk alone?
