

Mother Land

Eterna

Time...the sand will be falling down
One more chance for you and me.
I can see love in your eyes
I wanna live the Real Life!!

Blood of my own blood,
Red gold with no price.
Life is short and you'll see
The Real face of mother land!!

Up too high to level one
I hear the sound of falling rain.
I have a desert in my heat
With the glittering new stars!!

I just wanna understand...
It seems like a new beginning.
Mother Land, I'll never run away!!
One more suffering day
For a heart that lives in chains...
Mother Land, I'll never run away!!

I can give up my own dreams.
Maybe I can hurt myself,
To take care of the people
Who learn to love your soul.

Fresh of my own fresh
Saved on the book of life...
I'll be, crossing the frontiers, again...
The frontiers of the past!!

Up too high...
I just wanna understand...

Up too high...
I just wanna understand...
