

It should be the winter
Crying out... for the one that must
Come back to succeed it!

The bright shines from
The wings that bring hope...
They're bleeding
For you and for me!
Nature is dying...
... Human being is working...
To rise on eternity.
We got to believe in
The Strongest! The Strongest!

Like the change of Seasons
You have a reason to start it again...
Like the moon waiting for the morning.
To tell us about the stars...
And the Lord. That created us them
Won't be able to deny His friends!
I heard last
Night a silent scream...
It seemed like an Animal suffering...

Waiting for the Lord
To turn the history's
Page made of Blood and pain!

Like the change...
