

Fires Wrath

Eternal Legacy

I break through the gates of time
A foreshadow of my past life
Reckoning of this century
The fire swarms like a beast in hell
A bridge set fire... burning within...

The fires wrath
Brings anguish and horror
This state of mind
Restrains my passage

Tension rises I must move quick
My sword is drawn there is no turning back
I strike the dragon
He soars through the air
With fury rage and strength
The evil spirit has risen again...

The fires wrath
Brings anguish and horror
This state of mind
Restrains my passage

Distant cries
The savior is here
Friends of the past... protectors in shining armor
Destroy the fiend...
The massacre has come to an end...

The fires wrath
Brings anguish and horror
This state of mind
Restrains my passage...
Soldier...You can not defeat
