

Rise of Daemon

Eternal Legacy

Awoken by the wound that tears me inside
A fury... so strong...thus sanity is at rest
I look to the sky... with haste and mistrust...
The humans... the humans are at it again...

Now it's time... to leave my palace
I must get a closer look

Lord of Fire conform to me...
Send use up to the face of the earth
No trace to leave behind
I see into their minds...
They're trying to take... to take over earth again

Fire is blazing in the nightfall...
A volcanic eruption, I come...
I come as one
Devastation, clouding lives with fear
I will not sacrifice
Every living body and every soul will feel my pain

Lord of Fire conform to me...
Send me up to the face of the earth
No trace to leave behind
I see into their minds...
They're trying to take... to take over earth again

Fire is blazing in the nightfall...
A volcanic eruption, I come...
I come as one
Devastation, clouding lives with fear
I will not sacrifice
Every living body and every soul will feel my pain
